"Of 80 years of classes in the University 'Century Law' stands first"

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Sept. 25.—How much is a college yell worth? Does $1,000,000 seem like a high price for a real ear-splitting, welkin-wrecking campus cheer?

Capitalizing a college yell at $1,000,000 may sound like frenzied finance, but that is what the alumni of the University of Michigan have done.

The task of choosing from among 41,000 the one Michigander who could evoke the largest response in energy, time and money was as difficult as any which the general committee so far has had to face; for Michigan men in their undergraduate and young "old grad" days have been led by many an attractive personality, including such peppery enthusiasts as "Spider" Coe, "Sully" Sullivan, "Big Bill" Day, "Jim" Murrin, "Ed" Han and "Ed" Denby. The committee's unanimous choice, even if only was "Big Bill" Day.

Judge Day

The present Judge Day was a member of the "Century Law" class, rather, he was at Michigan; and among all Michigan's 80 years of classes in the numerous departments of a big university, "Century Law" was and is the class pre-eminent. It is the "Big Bill."

His graduation Mr.

Remember you belong to the class that has been ranked by the Detroit Journal as Class No. 1—of all classes, of all departments, since the University was founded.

"BIG BILL" DAY

'00L Movie King, Bell-Cow Cheer Leader, leading the Million Dollar Yell

So says Detroit Journal Sept. 25, 1915, in its news columns.
